WALMART INC.*

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MARK REMME,

Case No.: 23-5083

Plaintiff,

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF ACTION UNDER 28 U.S.C. §
1441(b) DIVERSITY BY DEFENDANT WALMART INC.

WALMART, INC.; and DOES 1 through 20, Inclusive,

Complaint Filed: August 16, 2022
Trial Date: None Assigned

Defendants.

TO THE CLERK OF THE ABOVE-ENTITLED COURT:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441 and 1446, Defendant Walmart Inc. (“Defendant”) hereby removes this civil action from the Superior Court of California for the County of Orange, where it is currently pending as Case No. 30-2022-01275694-CU-PO-NJC, to the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

1 This Court has original jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a) 2 on the grounds that complete diversity exists between all parties and the amount in 3 controversy exceeds the sum of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs. Plaintiff 4 Mark Remme is a resident, citizen and domiciliary of the State of California.
5 Defendant Walmart Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business 6 in the State of Arkansas.

7 BACKGROUND

8 On August 16, 2022, an action was commenced in the Superior Court of the 9 State of California in and for the County of Orange, entitled “Mark Remme v.
10 Walmart, Inc., and DOES 1 to 20 inclusive”, as Case Number 30-2022-01275695-11 CU-PO-NJC. On January 17, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint.
12 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), a copy of the Summons and First Amended 13 Complaint (“FAC”) are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

14 Plaintiff asserts in the FAC two causes of action, for negligence and premises
15 liability, arising out of an incident in which Plaintiff claims to have slipped and fallen 16 on a wet floor. The incident allegedly occurred on the premises of one of Defendant’s 17 retail store locations in Brea, California, on or about August 18, 2020. Plaintiff 18 claims that as a result of the incident, he sustained general and special damages. In a 19 May 26, 2023, 2022, Statement of Damages, Plaintiff asserts that he has incurred 20 general damages (for pain, suffering, inconvenience, and emotional distress) in the 21 sum of $750,000.00 and special damages (for medical expenses, future medical 22 expenses, loss of earnings and loss of future earning capacity) in the sum of 23 $335,000.00. A copy of Plaintiff’s Statement of Damages is attached hereto as 24 Exhibit 2.

25 GROUND FOR REMOVAL

26 As set forth more fully below, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 27 28 U.S.C. § 1332, which confers original jurisdiction of “all civil actions where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and

1 costs, and is between ... citizens of different States and in which citizens or subjects 2 of a foreign state are additional parties[.]”

3 I. The Amount-In-Controversy Requirement is Satisfied.

4 Plaintiff’s FAC does not specify the amount of damages sought by way of his 5 action. Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 425.10 and 425.11, a 6 plaintiff in a personal injury action is not permitted to include a specific damages 7 prayer in his complaint. Upon request, however, he is required to provide a detailed 8 statement of damages within fifteen (15) days. Before Plaintiff served Defendant 9 with the Summons and Complaint, however, he prepared and caused to be served 10 with the FAC, his “Statement of Damages.” (Exhibit 2) Therein, Plaintiff asserts 11 damages of not less than $750,000.00 in general damages, and not less than 12 $335,000.00 in special damages. (Exhibit 2) Plaintiff thus asserts total damages of 13 not less than $985,000.00.

14 District Courts within the Ninth Circuit have reached varied decisions as to 15 whether to treat statements of damage as sufficient to establish the amount in 16 controversy. “Generally, the statement of damages is not conclusive but can be 17 “strong evidence” of the amount in controversy – evidence that is adequate to meet 18 defendant’s burden, depending on the circumstances.” Brovold v. Safeway Inc. No.
19 3:20-vc-05792-BHS-JRC, 2020 WL 6566164, at *2 (W.D. Wa. Oct. 14, 2020),
20 citing Mozingo v. Japan Airlines Co., No. 20-CV-583 JLS (AGS), 2020 WL 21 2092913, at *2 (S.D. Cal. May 1, 2020) (remanding matter where statement of 22 damages asserted $265,000 in damages but only $15,000 had been paid to date for 23 medical expenses and the remainder of the calculation was entirely conclusory and 24 unrealistic); Flores v. Safeway, Inc., No. C19-0825-JCC, 2019 WL 4849488, at *1 25 (W.D. Wash. Oct. 1, 2019) (denying motion to remand where statement of damages 26 gave a specific estimate of the amount sought, which appeared reasonable and which 27 plaintiff did not disavow); Jackson v. Target Corp., No. CV086814RSWLVBKX, at 28 *1 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 22, 2008) (denying motion for remand where it was not a “bold

1 optimistic prediction” to presume that plaintiff sought at least $75,000 where she 2 alleged $783,205 in damages, including emotional distress, pain, suffering and 3 inconvenience, loss of future earning capacity, and future medical expenses); Ortiz
4 v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. 19-CV-1293 JLS (BGS), 2019 WL 3183675, at *2
5 (S.D. Cal. July 16, 2019) (remanding to state court where statement of damages did 6 not explain how plaintiff arrived at the estimate of $620,091.40 and where the only 7 damage claim supported by the complaint was $20,091.40 in medical expenses).

8 Courts in the Ninth Circuit, in assessing whether a removing party has satisfied 9 its burden is establishing the amount in controversy requirement, have “endorsed the 10 Fifth Circuit’s practice of considering facts presented in the removal petition as well 11 as ‘any summary-judgment-type evidence relevant to the amount in controversy at 12 the time of removal.’” Wheeler v. United Financial Casualty Co., No. 2:16-cv-01875-
13 SB, 2016 WL 6781612, at *2, citing Matheson v. Progressive Specialty Ins. Co., 319 14 F.3d 1089, 1090 (9th Cir. 1997)).

15 In his FAC, Plaintiff asserts that, as a consequence of Defendant’s negligence, 16 he was “exposed to perilous and unsafe conditions, inclusive without limitation, wet 17 floors with a puddle of water or liquid, causing the Plaintiff to fall and thereby sustain 18 the hereinafter-described injuries and damages.” (FAC, Exhibit 1, at ¶ 9.) He asserts 19 that as a consequence, “Plaintiff was hurt and injured in his health, strength and 20 activity, sustaining serious injuries to his body and suffering severe shock and injuries 21 to his nervous system and person, all of which injuries have caused, and continue to 22 cause, Plaintiff great mental, physical, psychological and nervous pain and suffering, 23 all to Plaintiff’s general damages...” (Id. at ¶ 12.)

24 Plaintiff also claims that “Plaintiff was required to and did incur medical and 25 incidental expenses...” and that “for a period to [sic] time in the future, be required 26 to employ physicians and incur additional medical and incidental expenses thereby.” 27 (Id. at ¶¶ 13-14.) Plaintiff further asserts that “Plaintiff was unable to attend to her 28 [sic] usual employment and has lost income...” and that “for a period of time in the 1 future, be unable to attend to, and\or obtain, gainful employment, or that her [sic] 2 ability to obtain gainful employment is diminished and\or her [sic] earning capacity

3 has been diminished.” (Id. at ¶¶ 15-16.)

4 Plaintiff’s Statement of Damages should be received as compelling evidence 5 of the amount in controversy in this instance, particularly in light of the serious nature
6 of the injuries Plaintiff allegedly sustained while a customer in one of Defendant’s 7 retail stores. While Plaintiff was not required to submit a Statement of Damages 8 specifying his damages prior to serving the Complaint, he elected to do so, 9 contemporaneously with serving Defendant with the Complaint. While Plaintiff may 10 not ultimately be able to recover as much as $985,000.00 for his alleged injuries as 11 is reflected in his Statement of Damages, as in Jackson v. Target Corp., supra, it is 12 not a “bold optimistic prediction” to presume that Plaintiff seeks to recover at least 13 $75,000 where he has alleged $985,000.00 in general and special damages.

14 Accordingly, the amount in controversy in this action well exceeds $75,000, 15 exclusive of interest and costs.

16 Because the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, removal on the basis of 17 diversity is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b).

18 II. Complete Diversity of Citizenship Exists Between Plaintiff and 19 Defendant.

20 On information and belief, Plaintiff is a resident of Brea, California. Plaintiff 21 is therefore a citizen of California. Defendant states that it was incorporated in the 22 State of Delaware and further states that its principal place of business is in Arkansas.
23 For purposes of diversity, therefore, Defendant is a citizen of Arkansas and Delaware.

24 The Complaint also names “DOES 1-20” as Defendants. (Complaint, Exhibit 25 1, at ¶ 3.) For purposes of removal, however, “the citizenship of defendants sued 26 under fictitious names shall be disregarded.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b)(1). Therefore, the 27 inclusion of “Doe” defendants in the state court Complaint has no effect on 28 removability. In determining whether diversity of citizenship exists, only the named

1 defendants are considered. See Newcombe v. Adolf Coors Co., 157 F.3d 686, 690-91
 2 (9th Cir. 1998); see also Olive v. Gen. Nutrition Ctrs., Inc., No. 2:12-cv-04297-ODW, 3 2012 WL 2006389, at *1 (C.D. Cal. June 5, 2012); Marsikyan v. Porsche Cars N.
 4 Am., Inc., No. CV 11-09411 SJO, 2012 WL 280585, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2012).

5 III. The Other Prerequisites for Removal are Satisfied.

6 This Notice of Removal is timely filed. The relevant statute provides that 7 “[e]ach defendant shall have 30 days after receipt... of the initial pleading... to file 8 the notice of removal.” 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(2)(B). Plaintiff filed his Complaint with 9 the state court on August 16, 2022, and his FAC on January 17, 2023. Defendant was 10 served with the FAC (Exhibit 1), together with Plaintiff’s Statement of Damages 11 (Exhibit 2), on May 31, 2023.

12 This action is properly removed to the United States District Court for the 13 Central District of California, which is “the district and division embracing the place 14 where [the] action is pending.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a); see also 28 U.S.C. § 84(c) 15 (listing the counties within the Central District of California).

16 Title 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a) requires a copy of all process, pleadings, and orders 17 served upon the removing defendant in the state court action (30-2022-01275694-18 CU-PO-NJC) to be included with this Notice of Removal. True and correct copies 19 of the following documents are attached hereto as:

- 20 • Exhibit 1 – Summons and First Amended Complaint
- 21 • Exhibit 2 – Statement of Damages
- 22 • Exhibit 3 – Civil Case Cover Sheet

23 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), a Notice to Adverse Party of Removal to 24 Federal Court, attached hereto as Exhibit 4, together with this Notice of Removal, 25 will be served upon counsel for Plaintiff, and will be filed with the clerk of the 26 Superior Court for the County of Orange.

1 By filing this Notice of Removal, Defendant does not waive any objections to 2 jurisdiction or venue, and specifically reserves the right to assert any defenses and/or 3 objections to which it may be qualified to assert.

4 If any question arises as to the propriety of the removal of this action,
5 Defendant respectfully requests the opportunity to submit briefing and oral argument 6 and to conduct discovery in support of its position that subject matter jurisdiction 7 exists.

8 DATED: June 27, 2023

9 Respectfully submitted,

10 O'HAGAN MEYER
